

Buckinghamshire Association for Masonic Research (BAMR)
www.bamr.co.uk

A Lecture at Haddenham Lodge of Instruction
No. 8944

Thursday, 17th January 2013 at 7.30 pm

Did The Threat of German Invasion in WWII Pose a Risk to British Freemasonry?

By
David J Peck, PPJGW (Bucks)
BAMR Chairman

This paper was awarded the 2012 Norman D Spencer Prize by Quatuor Coronati (QC) Lodge No. 2076, the Premier Lodge of Masonic Research.

Followed by an informal discussion

Venue: Thame Masonic Hall
14 High Street, Thame, Oxon. OX9 2BZ

Masons & Non-Masons Welcome

If you wish to attend or for further information contact:

David J Peck
davepeck@bamr.co.uk 01844292110